The Time Is Now!

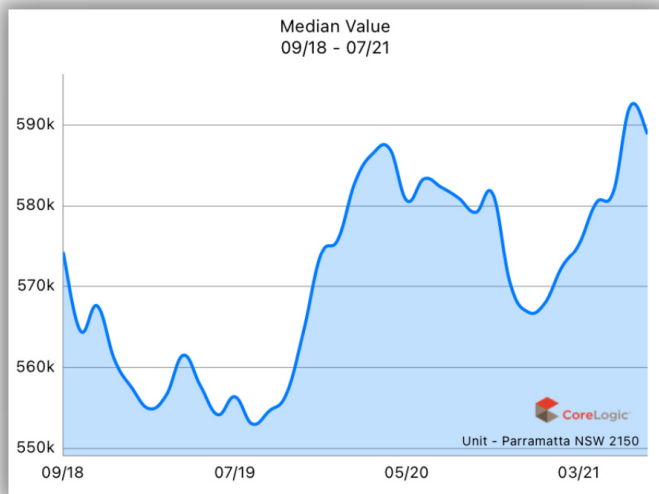

If you are contemplating selling your home or investment, let me suggest taking action now! Interest rates are at a record low, and as a result there is an abundance of buyers in the marketplace with finance ready to purchase immediately! With low stock levels in the Parramatta area, this creates more interest on every property and has proven to ensure quick sale turnover.

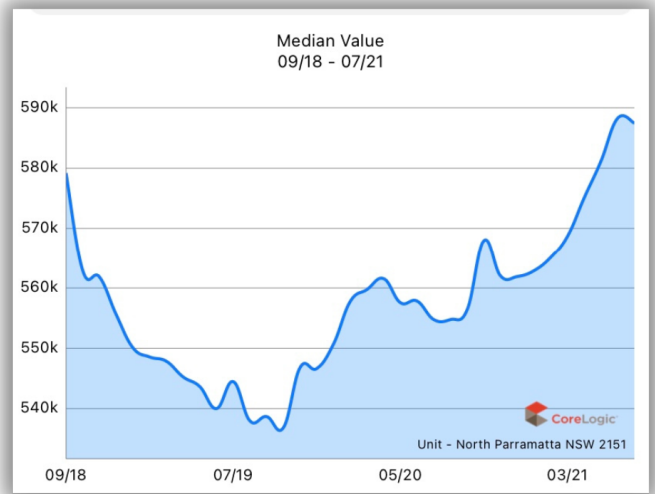

The time is now, contact Dimitri on 0401 058 865 about selling today!
